

A Note from Your President

As of January 13 the SVS&RDA Home web page – pasquaredance.org /svsrda or psrdf.org/svsrda looked as below:

Susquehanna Valley Square & Round Dance Association

The Susquehanna Valley Square & Round Dance Association (SVS & RDA) is composed of square and round dancing clubs from neighboring areas and is one of six associations that comprise the PA Square & Round Dance Federation (PSRDF). The main purpose of the SVS & RDA is to provide a communication center for all member clubs and sister Associations/Federations. Through the printed SVS & RDA Directory and this online site, the Association strives to inform all member clubs of activities and special dances being held by other member clubs.

The Association co-sponsors two dances each year – The Presidents' Ball held on the last Sunday in April and the Graduation Ball held on the third Sunday in May.

In order to accomplish its purpose of (1) communication, (2) promoting Western square and round dancing as a hobby, both for current dancers and for beginners and (3) offering guidance and assistance to member clubs. The Association holds an annual meeting in April (immediately following the President's Ball) and a meeting generally in September and January.
